Let's Study, Enjoy & Celebrate the Bible . . .

1. To understand the mind of God.
2. To be inspired by God and those who have served Him.
3. To learn about God's dealings with His people.
4. To see Jesus and to see Him with greater and greater depth.
5. To understand the person of Jesus.
6. To understand God's eternal purpose for mankind through history.
7. To submit ourselves to the life-changing capacities of the Word of God.
8. To saturate our minds with God's higher thoughts and ways.
9. To grow in the Christian life and as a believer who is assured of the love of God.
10. To be infused by truth and the Spirit of Truth.
11. To allow the Holy Spirit to teach us.
12. To share with the people of God worldwide and in eternity.
13. To motivate us into prayer and to believing in the power of prayer.
14. To instruct us how to live our lives and to answer our moral questions.
15. To know the guidance of God.
16. To keep a right and proper perspective on life.
17. To remind us of the grace of God.
18. To establish the link between heaven and earth.
19. To learn obedience to the Father.
20. To submit to God.
21. To accept the gift of God as our inheritance.
22. To understand the secrets of the kingdom of heaven.
23. To establish discipline in the Christian life.
24. To know God and to know that God is always with us.
25. To activate the anointing power of the Holy Spirit in our lives.
26. To study the Bible because Jesus studied the Bible and told us of its merits.

~ Hebrews 11:1

"Faith is the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see."

~ Excerpt from Wired for High-Level Wellness by Susan Smith Jones, PhD
David wrote the Foreword for this inspiring and empowering Christian book.

"When we reach out in surrender to God and Jesus, our heart is changed, our health is renewed, our thoughts are purified, our faith is bolstered, and our life is blessed in countless ways. We become a lighthouse of God's Love and a shining example of Christian joy." SSJ
